

ECTMIH Academy - 28 September 2025

Rooms	Room 1	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5	Room 6
8:30-9:00	Arrival
09:00-10:00	Key note: 'Diversity, decoloniality and power: Reimagining global health research, education, and practice' by Prof Laetitia Rispel (Wits University, Johannesburg)
10:00-10:30	Coffee break
10:30-12:00	Computational & immersive technologies in epidemic preparedness & response (BNITM, Studio Monstrum)	Navigating the DTM&H courses landscape - Why? Where? When? How? (BNITM)	Epistemic injustice in global health discourse (BayFOR, BNITM, Swiss TPH)	Understanding & changing behaviours contributing to AMR (University Erfurt, University of Vienna, University of Essex, BNITM)	Outbreak investigations: Tracing the source in challenging settings (BNITM) ALMOST FULLY BOOKED	Inspirations to advance your global health career (GLOHRA Academy)
12:00-13:00	Lunch break
13:00-14:30	Inside the mobile lab: Hands-on diagnostics for high-risk pathogens during public health emergencies (EMLab, BNITM) FULLY BOOKED	Wikitropica: An open source teaching & learning platform (ITM Antwerp)	UPDATED! AI tools & a framework for prompting (tropEd Network)	Stakeholder analysis for more successful project management (QMU Edinburgh)	Operational research in humanitarian settings (Epicentre)	Publishing & Scientific writing (CUP & TMIH Journal)
14:30-15:00	Coffee break
15:00-16:30	R for applied epidemiologists (Applied Epi) ALMOST FULLY BOOKED	The politics of partnerships & international cooperation (Hospital Partnerships, GIZ)	Balancing stakeholder needs and epidemiological rigour in global health research (KIT Amsterdam)	Nature-based solutions for inspiring, designing, and decolonizing planetary health research (BNITM)	Introduction to advocacy from a civil society perspective (BUKO Pharma, MSF Berlin)	How to engage in networking (DZIF Academy)
16:30-17:00	Release					